Vital parenting for HSC success

Paul Teys is a highly regarded and dynamic educational leader, an entertaining and engaging speaker and he is willing to share his knowledge and expertise. Thirty-three years experience as an educator, fifteen years as a Principal and a parent who has survived the HSC, he has significant experience to impart. Paul is currently a Director of AHISA (the Association of Heads of Independent Schools of Australia), Chair of the NSW/ACT Branch of AHISA, and an Observer on the Board of the AIS NSW.

This workshop will provide parents with important insights about the HSC, how parents can proactively and positively influence their child's outcomes and equip parents to survive the HSC. Successful HSC outcomes are more than just study, the process begins with school/life balance, effective learning habits and healthy wellbeing. Paul will help you get a strong-hold on a challenging period in your parent life, assisting you help your child to be the best they can be.
